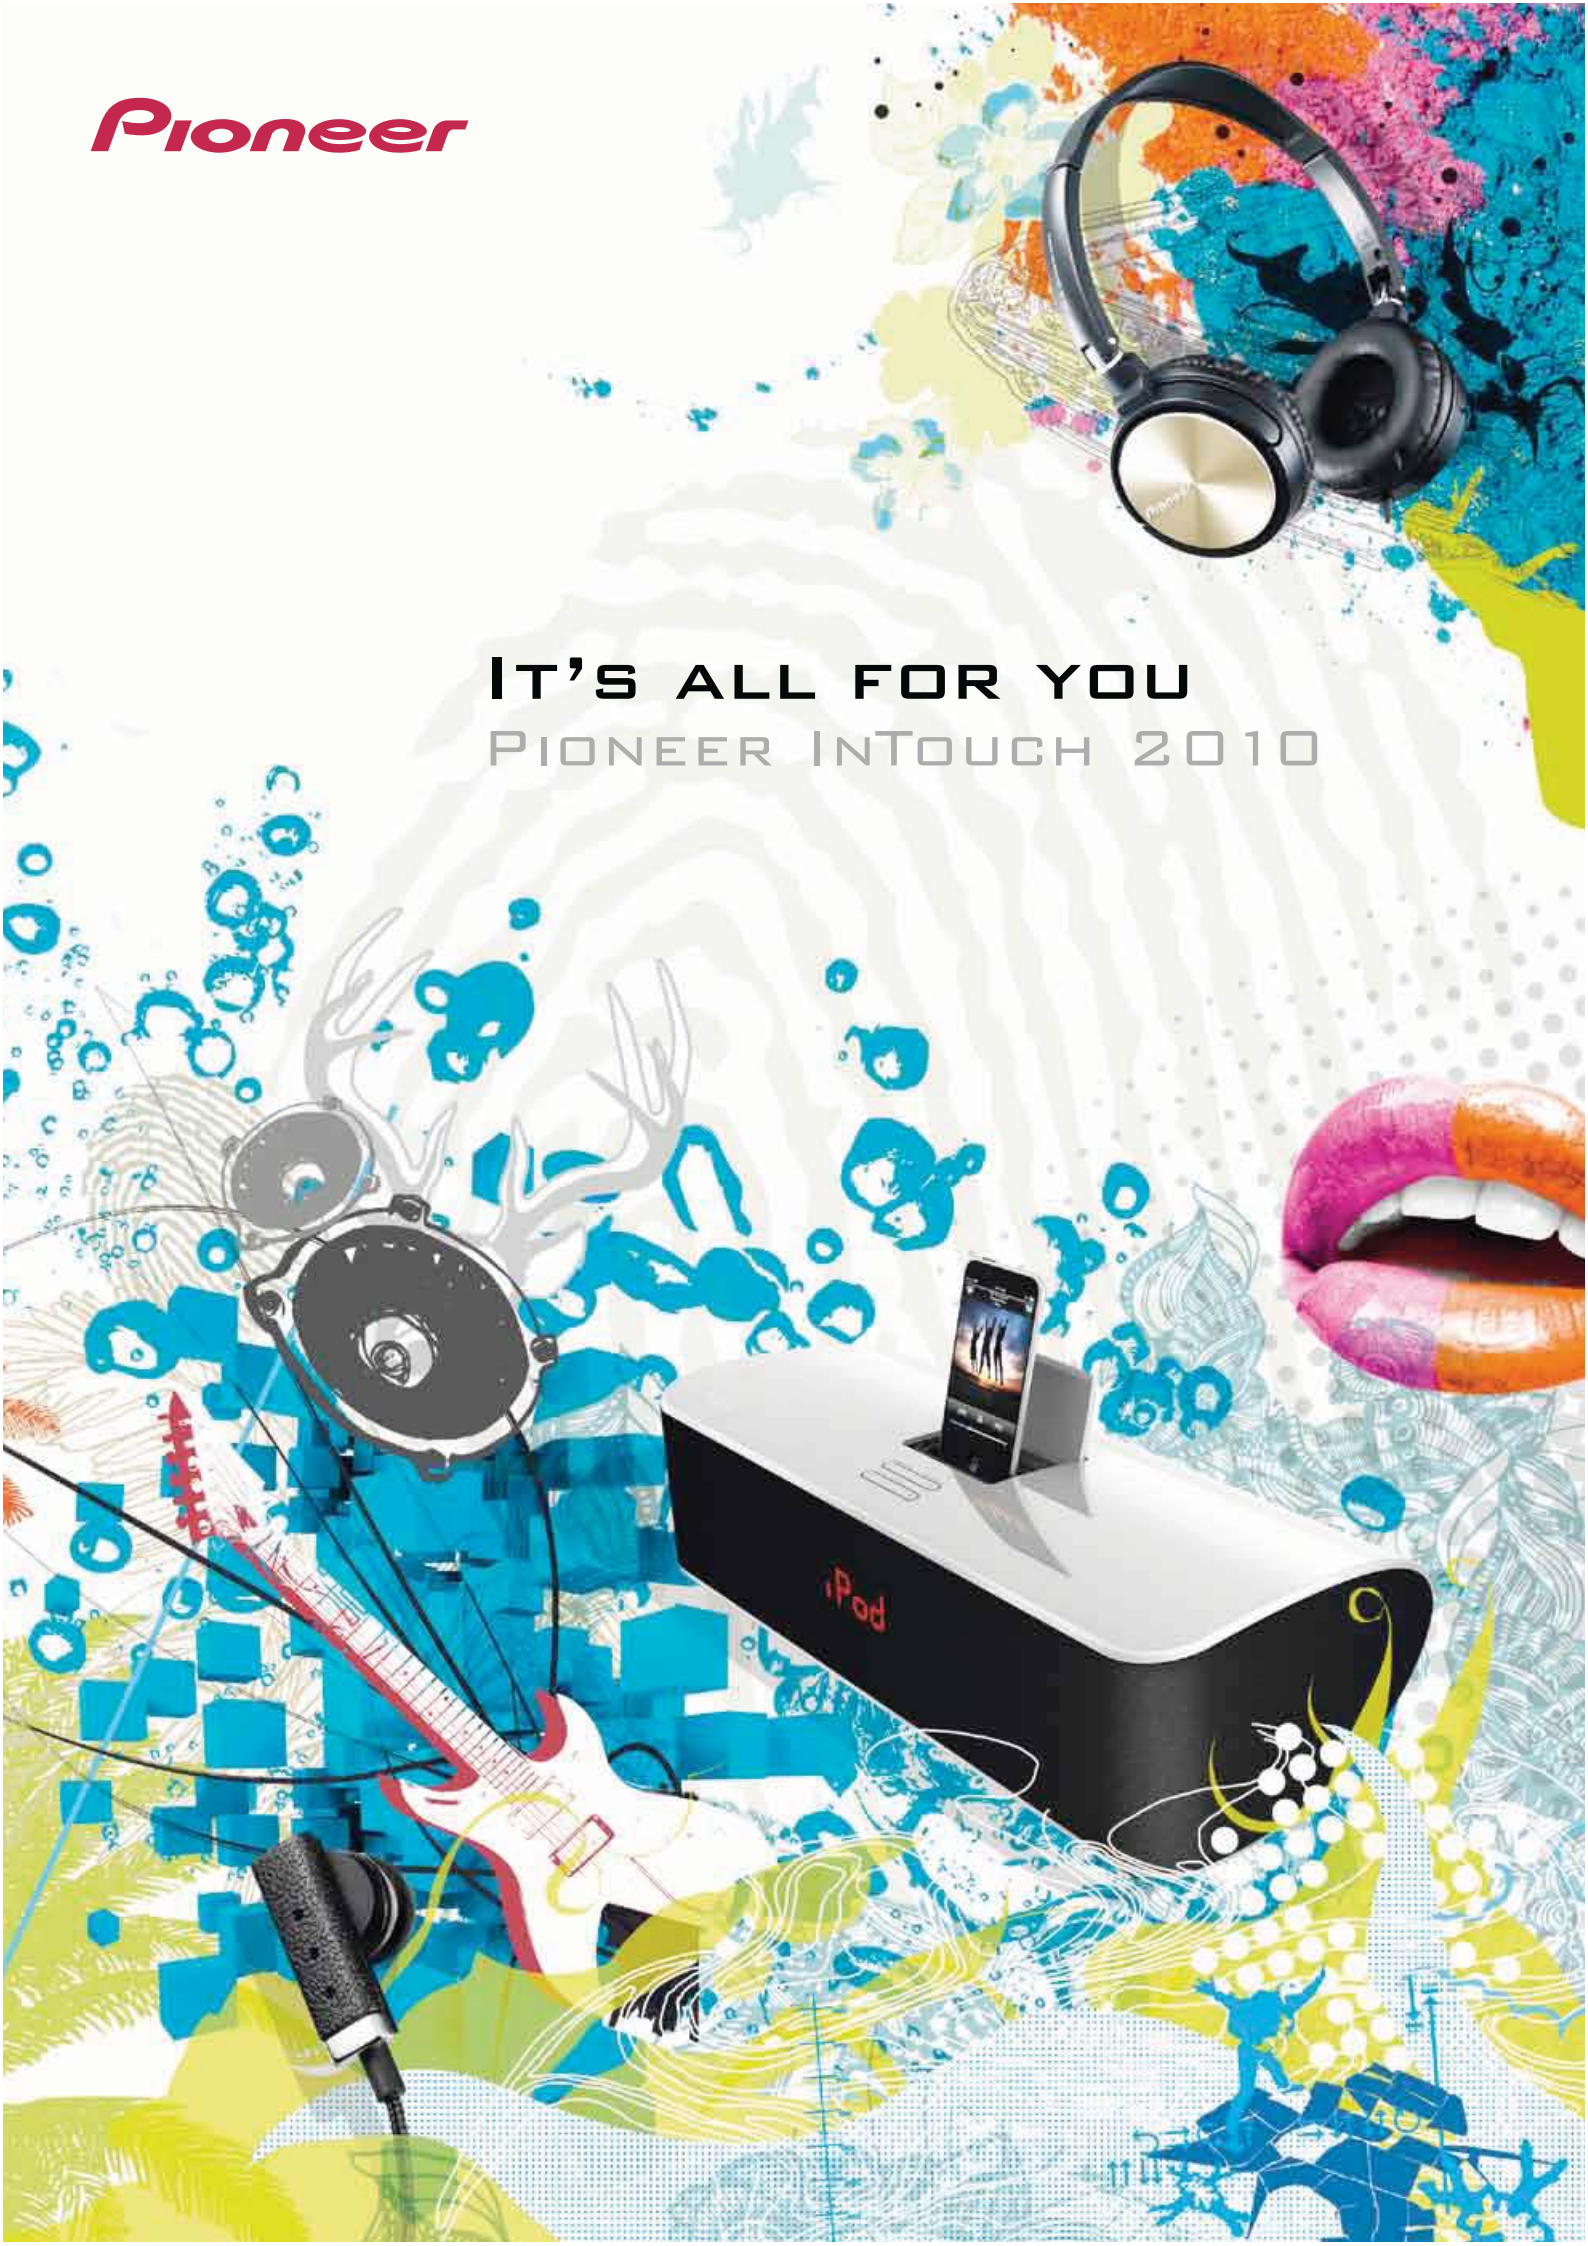
Pioneer



It's all for you

Pioneer InTouch 2010

YOUR LIFE. YOUR SOUND.

What does music mean to you?

Music. It's much more than tones, rhythms, tunes and harmonies. Music is pure emotion, joy, love and passion. Music sets the mood and accompanies us in day-to-day life. Music is universal and at the same time very personal. Whatever music means to you, experience it up close and real in all its brilliance with Pioneer's excellent iPod speaker systems and the full spectrum of high-performance headphones.

YOUR MUSIC. YOUR PASSION.

What colour is your music?

No stage could be better for your iPod and iPhone to show what they can do: the XW-NAS3 and XW-NAS5 are powerful speaker systems that bring your digital music to life in a fascinating design. With the overwhelming basses of the downfiring subwoofer and precise, distortion-free high notes, your music unfolds in all colours of the sound spectrum. An optional adapter lets you connect in an instant with Bluetooth wireless streaming. Additional features in the XW-NAS5 include an LED alarm clock and an FM radio. And if you want more than music, both systems connect with a TV to let you view stored or streamed videos via your iPod or iPhone.

YOUR BEAT. YOUR MIX.

More choices, more fun.

What's better than a great music collection? Two great music collections! And that's exactly why the beautifully designed XW-NAC1 and XW-NAC3 feature docking stations for two iPods/iPhones at once. That is not only very practical, it also doubles your selection of good music – and your listening fun. Now you and your friends can enjoy continuous shuffle-playback, automatically and cleverly mixed in real-time from both iPods/iPhones. Both models are equipped with a Bluetooth interface and a composite port for video playback. And for even more choices, the top model XW-NAC3 features full connectivity with DLNA audio, internet radio, USB.

YOUR VISION. YOUR EXPERIENCE.

All you want rolled into one.

If you don't want to miss a thing, the XW-NAV1 AV system is the perfect choice. It not only looks great and harmonizes with every style, it also opens up a world of entertainment options: on the one hand it's a DVD player equipped with an HDMI port and 1080p upscaler for brilliant DVD viewing on your TV. On the other hand it's a multimedia machine that fulfils virtually every wish – from iPod and iPhone compatibility to FM radio and USB connectivity.
